TO BE RUN JULY 30, 2017

STAKES RECORD: 1:41.20 – AMBASSADOR OF LUCK (1983), LADY’S SECRET (1986)

HISTORIC HIGHLIGHTS

Molly Pitcher handled a cannon while she helped fight the Battle of Monmouth in the Revolutionary War under the command of George Washington. The roll call of the Molly Pitcher winners reads like a “who’s who” of fillies and mares.

RUNNING LINES

Twelve American champions and two Hall of Fame members have contested the Molly Pitcher, a traditional feature since the opening year of the new Monmouth Park in 1946.

The 1980s were a decade of glory for the Molly Pitcher. Jameela, the 1982 victor, was a million dollar earner, winning 27 races (including multiple Grade I’s) in her career. She was also the dam of Gulch, Breeders’ Cup Sprint winner and champion sprinter of 1988.

In addition to Jameela, the Molly Pitcher has produced a number of excellent broodmares. Misty Morn (1955) was the dam of 1964 juvenile champion Bold Lad and top horse Sunrise Flight. Searching (1958) was the dam of stakes winners Priceless Gem and Admiring. Primonetta (1962) was the dam of three stakes winners including Florida Derby winner PrinceThou Art. Politely (1967 and 1968) dropped two stakes winners including Northerly. Weber City Miss (1981) was the dam of three stakes winners including Slew City Slew, winner of Monmouth’s Salvator Mile and beaten a neck by Alysheba in the Meadowlands Cup. Sultry Sun (1984) was the dam of three Grade I winners including Sultry Song and Solar Splendor. Personal Ensign (1988) produced Jockey Club Gold Cup winner Miner’s Mark, champion My Flag and Grade I winner Traditionally. Lady’s Secret and Personal Ensign, two Hall of Famers to come out of the Molly Pitcher, both used the race on their way through their best campaigns.

Lady’s Secret also had other success at Monmouth, including a win in the 1985 Regret, and broke the all-time money winning title for a filly with an allowance win here. Personal Ensign’s Molly Pitcher victory was her ninth win in 13 undefeated career starts.

Ogden Mills Phipps became the third member of his family to win the Molly Pitcher when Inside Information took the 1995 running. His sister Cynthia’s Versailles Treaty won in 1992 and his father’s Personal Ensign won in 1988.

Capeside Lady became the first horse since Honky Star in 1974 and 1975 to win the Monmouth Oaks the previous year and come back to take the Molly Pitcher the following season.

Hystericalady, runner-up in the 2007 Breeders’ Cup, successfully defended her Molly Pitcher title in 2008, becoming the first horse since Politely in 1967 and 1968 to win back-to-back editions.
