Colonel Moran, the Red Bank winner in 1981, completed a unique double that season when he won this race on the turf, then returned later in the Monmouth Park meeting to win the Salvator Mile on the main track. A top competitor on both surfaces, the previous year Colonel Moran was third in the Preakness Stakes.

Double Booked was in sharp form when he captured this race in 1991. A former claimer from Ohio, Double Booked developed into a multiple stakes winner and held a number of track records, including two at Monmouth Park.

Adam Smith won back-to-back editions of the Red Bank Handicap. The Great Britain-bred had been a world traveler and was two-for-two in 1994.

Miesque's Approval became the first champion to win the Red Bank when showcasing his talent at Monmouth en route to his Breeders' Cup Mile victory.

Get Serious is the only three-time winner of the Red Bank, setting a course record in his 2010 victory.
