$60,000 SORORITY

TO BE RUN SEPTEMBER 2, 2017

FILLIES 3-YEARS-OLD • SIX FURLONGS

STAKES RECORD: 1:09.00 - RUFFIAN (1974)

HISTORIC HIGHLIGHTS

Along with its male counterpart, the Sapling, the Sorority has featured some of the best juveniles in history among its roster of previous winners.

RUNNING LINES

Six previous winners and two runners-up in the Sorority have gone on to championship honors.

Considered by many to be the greatest filly in the history of the sport, there is no question that Ruffian was a brilliant racehorse. Her juvenile campaign was a five race tour de force that included a win in the Sorority, which was probably her stiffest test. Ruffian, who always raced on the lead, was pressured early by Hot n Nasty, but was able to hold off that rival before drawing away to capture this race. In 1975, Ruffian swept the New York Filly Triple Crown prior to her tragic demise in a match race against 1974 Sapling winner Foolish Pleasure.

Hollywood Wildcat shipped in from Calder for a win in the 1992 Sorority. She was fairly quiet after that, but was moved to California by her connections and regained her best form. A year after her Sorority win, she was rapidly establishing herself as a top filly, and capped off her 1993 campaign with a win in the Breeders' Cup Distaff, clinching her the title as Eclipse award winning three-year-old filly.

Ben Perkins, Jr. won three in a row from 2000 to 2002 with Stormy Pick, Forest Heiress, and Wild Snitch.
